

International travel requires more than tickets and a passport. Dr. Michael Callaway has extensive experience in Travel Medicine and can provide the medical information and healthcare appropriate for your travel plans.

Michael W. Callaway, M.D.

- Medical School:
University of Arkansas
for Medical Sciences,
Little Rock, Arkansas
- Family Practice
Residency:
University of Arkansas
Area Health Education
Center, Fort Smith,
Arkansas
- Board Certification:
American Board of
Family Practice

- Has practiced at Cooper Clinic Fianna Hills Family Practice since 1993
- Has more than 10 years in the management of travel medications and healthcare preparations
- Most insurance plans accepted

Vaccinations (per your travel agenda)

- Routine
- Recommended per your travel agenda
- Required
- Competitively priced vaccines

Disease Prevention

- Advice regarding illnesses common to your area of travel

Disease Management While Away

- Prescription Planning
- Food Precautions

For more information or to schedule an appointment, call the

Fianna Hills Family Practice
(479) 274-6000 or 1-800-333-1305

Appointments may also be requested online: www.cooperclinic.com